

Getting a ride for healthcare services
is one less thing for you to worry about.

Modivcare's mission is to make it easy to get a ride for non-emergency covered healthcare services. We meet you when and where you need us. We'll get you there by using our specialized transportation providers, ride-sharing services, public transit, or pay per mile. This service is at no cost to Presbyterian Turquoise Care members.

We provide transportation to:

- provider offices
- diagnostic centers
- residential facilities
- dialysis centers
- hospitals
- dental clinics
- mental health clinics
- substance use disorder clinics

Modivcare has been providing vital transportation services since 1996. We have since completed more than 30 million trips and serve and manage more than 36 million lives. As the nation's leading provider of non-emergency medical transportation, we make sure members, like you, have the best transportation experience tailored to each of your transportation needs.

Need more information about your transportation benefit? Call Presbyterian Turquoise Care at the number on the back of your Presbyterian member ID card.

Such services are funded in part with the State of New Mexico.
